(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) OAKLAND PARK, JERSEY CITY, March 30.—The Giants, champions of this earth, to-day were conquered by Commissioner Smith's fence-breakers, and with lowly men came to Jersey City's suburbs to play a game of ball, their first of the season.

Their opponents were the Jasper College nine, composed of young men whom a Winter of gymnasium work had put into prime condition.
The Giants, on the other hand, have for the most part been comparatively idle during the Winter, and have been exercising for only a few days past.

But in spite of the long rest taken, the Giants, to every appearance, were the same old Giants of last season.

The boys, perhaps made restless by a cold, or perhaps enthused by the being again on a ball field, went to work at practice earnestly, and indulged in many quick stops and passes of the ball.

Wagenhurst, the new player, is a muscular young man of quick movement.
He goes at a grounder in good shape and follows a stop with a quick but peculiarly push-like throw.

A small crowd, pluckily bent on witnessing the champions' first game, shivered in the shade of the grand stand.
The game was called promptly at 3 o'clock, with the Giants at the bat. The nines were as follows:

NEW YORK.
O'Rourke, 1st b.
Slattery, c.
Foster, 2d b.
Richardson, 3d b.
Wagenhurst, p.
Tibbott, c.
Umpire—Mr. Pearce.

First Inning—Slattery, O'Rourke, his muscle a trifle longer than last year and the shrug of his shoulders that he was first to bat.
He lifted a high fly to left field, and was first out.

Slattery, rather than to go, knocked the ball in the same direction, but further out, and took two bases on the hit.
Foster knocked a single past short, bringing Slattery home.

second on Green's sacrifice. O'Leary's grounder was carried to first by Connor. No runs.
Sixth Inning—O'Rourke knocked a high fly to short right, and on Wild's muff took first. Slattery followed with his fourth successive single in the game, advancing O'Rourke to second.
Mullins filled the bases by pitching the ball into Foster's ribs.

Connor's grounder was fumbled by Wild and O'Rourke scored. Richardson's fly was muffed by Lally and Slattery scored.
Then Wagenhurst proved the sincerity of his grip by launching a line over second, which brought home both Foster and Connor.

Four balls gave Whitney first. Murphy knocked a little bonner to third, and a series of muffs, fumbles and overthrow allowed all the base-runners to score before George, who at this point took Tibbott's place, could get a chance to hit the ball.

When he did he bowled an easy one to third, and on that base-man's throw took third.
The collegians were awfully rattled by this time, and a series of horrible errors and a twobase by Slattery allowed George, O'Rourke and Slattery to score.

Foster and Connor were retired on infield hits Richardson, Wagenhurst and Whitney also trotted around the bases to the tune of hits and errors. Murphy was third out at the home plate. Fourteen runs.

Mullins hit safely. Gallagher went out, Richardson to Connor. Lally hit safely to left.
Donohue went out. Whitney took first, and Mullins scored. Collins went out on a foul to Connor. One run.

Slattery's stinging double to right brought Richardson home, and Connor's two-base sent the fleet-footed Elmer across the plate.
Donohue went out. Whitney received a base on balls, but was left by Whitney's out at first. Two runs.

Hamill popped up a fly to George. Wild struck out, and Green fouled to Murphy.
No runs.
Eighth Inning—George hit for two bases in this inning, but the Giants failed to connect with the home plate.

The Jaspers made one in their half of the inning.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 30.—After three years of backing and filling and the posting of several deposits to secure a match Jack Ashton, of this city, and Joe Lannon, of Boston, came together between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning and fought for a purse of $1,000.

The local police were on to the fight and had fought for a purse of $1,000.
There was a great deal of interest taken in the fight, not only here and at Boston, but in nearly all the New England cities, as well as in New York, and all were represented in a crowd of nearly five hundred persons, who paid $10 each for a piece of pasteboard which they were to present at 7.30 o'clock in the evening.

Two of the wanderers were hunted up by a woman who heard that they were missing, who took a lantern and went in search of them.
The men entered the ring at midnight, and after a vigorous rubbing down, shook hands at 12.15.

Ashton was seconded by Steve McMaugh and Jim Daily, of Providence, and Lannon by Jim Lannon and Billy Mahoney, of Boston.
Moran, of Bridgeport, was chosen as referee.

Ashton was weighed in at 172 pounds and Lannon at 190. Both men were in excellent form and as pink as a rose.
The betting was even, and the Pawtucket audience, who were all new to the scene, bet about $6,000 changed hands.

When time was called Ashton began to lead and planted his left foot on Lannon's jaw. This piled the Boston boy, who made a rush and endeavored to do any damage. The men then dropped in and their action was a perfect mixture of the great majority of the public, that the Polo Grounds should be rendered unfit for baseball during the season by the grading of permanent grounds for use in future seasons.

Richardson home, and Connor's two-base sent the

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) LONDON, March 30.—The forty-sixth annual eight-oared boat race between representative crews from Oxford and Cambridge Universities was rowed this afternoon over the regular course from Putney to Mortlake, a distance of four miles and a quarter, and was won, as had been generally expected, by the Cambridge crew.

The race, as usual, was witnessed by a large crowd, the hour for the start being 4.15. As usual, a great display of dark and light-blue colors, the latter, by reason of the generally accepted belief that Cambridge would win, predominating.

The start was made at 4.15 P. M. Cambridge was the quickest, and at once secured such a lead that it was impossible for the Oxford crew to follow. The start, they were leading by a clear length.

As they neared James Bridge, five furlongs from the end, the Oxford made a fine rally, but could not reach the Cambridge crew, who, rowing cool and strong, with the perfect form of veterans, won with the greatest ease by four lengths, as officially declared. Among two lengths was the distance first given.

As expected, both crews will line up at the Holborn Restaurant this evening, and the Lord Esler, Master of the Rolls, will preside, he will play a polo match, having rowed at "seven" in the winning Cambridge boat in 1879.

The crews and the weights reported up to last mail arrivals, March 31, were as follows, with
